An Indo-Swiss Socio Cultural Organization in Switzerland

Keli warmly welcomes all art lovers to the 20th Keli International Kalamela, a Festival of Indian Arts, taking place on the 7th and 8th of June 2025 at Gemeindesaal Blatten, Blattenweg 12, 8634 Hombrechtikon, Switzerland.

This vibrant festival is a kaleidoscope of artistic expression, blending traditional and contemporary Indian art forms, literature, and performance skills. It serves as a dynamic platform for artists to celebrate India's cultural richness while competing for prestigious titles such as Soorya India Kalathilakam, Keli Kalaratna, Balaprabhitha Award, and the Fr. Abel Memorial Trophy.

Over the past 19 years, Kalamela has provided a stage for thousands of talented artists from various countries, showcasing more than 35 diverse categories of competition. Every event in this festival offers a glimpse into India's vast and varied artistic heritage. Esteemed figures from the international art community are specially invited to judge participants across different categories.

Beyond the competitions, food-an integral part of Indian culture-adds another layer to the festival's experience. Guests can indulge in a variety of authentic South Indian, North Indian, and Indo-Chinese cuisines throughout the event. The festival culminates in a grand closing ceremony on the second day, a celebration of artistic excellence and cultural unity.

We warmly invite you to immerse yourself in this spectacular world of art and culture!
